
3-D Measurement system

With the help of our 3-D measurement system we are able to measure the produced piping without length limitation and high tolerances demands on 0,01 mm according to Class B.

Attendant advantage is that the precision pipe can also be measured during production on the workplace. The precision pipe can be measured in every position and can be provided with a measurement report.